Riley J. Berthelot, Jr. (“Pee Wee”) named to Plaquemine Bank and Trust Company Board

Stephen Panepinto, Chairman of the Board of Plaquemine Bank and Trust Company, announced the election of Riley J. Berthelot, Jr., to the Board of Directors of the Bank.

Mr. Berthelot is a lifelong resident of West Baton Rouge Parish and is married to Suzie LeBlanc Berthelot. They have two sons, Toby and Todd, and five grandchildren. Mr. Berthelot served five consecutive terms as the West Baton Rouge Parish President. Prior to serving as Parish President he owned and operated Sun Electric. He served in the United States Navy from 1969 until 1971 as 3rd Class Petty Officer (E-4) and Communication Yeoman.

“Mr. Berthelot brings knowledge and leadership that will enhance our Board,” Panepinto said. He added, “We are proud to be a part of our community providing the best banking and financial services available. Adding “Pee Wee” to our Board contributes to our mission.”

Plaquemine Bank and Trust Company is a locally owned and operated full service financial institution. More information is available at www.plaqbank.com.
